

1. What is computer?

Computer is an electronic device that stores and process data,often in binary form in accordance with commands from variable programme.it takes input and produces output as per requirements.

2. What is RAM?

RAM is Random Access Memory.it is volatile this means that information is kept while computer running and it is erased when machine is powered off.we called ram as primary memory because it is directly connected to processor.

3. Where is data stored in computer?

Data stored in Harddisk means secondary memory.

4. What is that input device used to type text and numbers on a document in the computer system?

Keyboard is the input device used to type text and numbers on a document in the computer system.

5. What are the output devices?

Output means what we get back from commands that we gave to the computer through input devices.out devices are monitor,printer e.t.c.

6. What is the input device that allows a user to move the cursor or pointer on the screen?

Mouse is the input device that allows a user to move the cursor or pointer on the screen.

7. Which language is directly understood by the computer without a translation program?

Machine language is directly understood by the computer without a translation program.

8. What are the input devices?

Input devices are keyboard,joystick e.t.c.by the input devices computer can receive commands in the form of numbers,alphabets and graphics e.t.c.